Plant for the future. Sound, color, 16-mm. 10¾ minutes.

From Morrison's Cove, deep in the heart of Pennsylvania, comes this inspiring story of people doing things for themselves. Tells how a group of growers formed a home industry designed to grade and pack fresh apples for today's demanding markets. With assistance from the Rural Areas Development Program, these fruit farmers formed a packing cooperative that brought multiple benefits to the Cove for all—growers, businessmen, job seekers. TV cleared.

Weatherproofing Baca County. Sound, b/w, 16-mm., 5¾ minutes.

Reports how farmers and ranchers in this Southeastern Colorado County are preparing for the next, inevitable drought in a region often plagued by dry years and dust storms. Shows how the people in this Great Plains area are protecting and improving their land—how they conserve each drop of precious moisture by killing off thirsty weeds and building new wells and ponds—how they are conquering the wind through such practices as stubble mulching and by reseeding native grasses in sagebrush. TV cleared.
